Common Cents Sponsor Responsibilities

- Complete all Dallas ISD paperwork prior to starting the program. Schools must complete the FASC Activity Funds form and submit documents to campus BOC. Fundraiser form should be submitted by the office manager/financial clerk. Approvals must be in place prior to the start date.

- Identify student roundtable to direct fundraising efforts on campus. Lead discussions to assist students with learning what philanthropy means and why philanthropy in our own community is important.

- Assist students in identifying area nonprofit(s) to receive funding. Also encourage students to visit <https://www.northtexasgivingday.org/> to learn about nonprofits. The selected nonprofit must have a 501 (c) (3) designation.

- Help coordinate fundraisers and oversee money collection. Handle funds with care and keep good records. ALL MONIES MUST BE TURNED IN DAILY. Follow guidelines for handing in money that are detailed in the packet.

- Attend the Common Cents celebraton in the spring with your students. Students will be able to present a large ceremonial check to the nonprofits they selected and meet representatives from the organizations.

- If you have any questions please call Tonya Mayberry Davis, Dallas ISD Partnership and Volunteer Services, at (972) 925-3654, tmayberry@dallasisd.org.

Step 1 – Select a Non-Profit Organization

Use the Social Emotional Learning Question Guide as a resource.

Encourage the students to brainstorm problems, challenges and needs in their communities. Identify agencies that address that address these issues.

Help Student Develop Criteria for Selection of Nonprofits.

Guide them to identify nonprofits that serve a compelling need in your community, have a positive reputation for helping people and can effectively express their needs and plans for using the money to benefit the community near your school.

Nonprofit organizations selected to receive funds must be registered as a 501(c)(3) to be eligible. To verify that your chosen organization qualifies and is approved search:

Nonprofit Search: <https://www.northtexasgivingday.org/>

You may also contact Katie Kuehl, Communities Foundation of Texas at kkuehl@cftexas.org or 214-750-4137.

Step 2 – Identify your student Leaders

Students are leaders! Encourage them to figure things out. They are capable of so much with this program and our goal is for them to feel like THEY are making a difference.

Step 3 – Complete Fundraising Paperwork

Complete the district on-line paperwork and get all required approvals from the campus and district levels before beginning!

Required - FASC application

Board of Control approval

Principal approval

ED approval

Step 4 – Plan and Execute a Fundraiser

Get the Word Out

Make sure that EVERYONE knows your campus is participating. Inform all teachers about the program and encourage them to get their classes involved. Make posters, include in your morning announcements, put in your school newsletter, send home the enclosed parent letter.

The Collection phase will begin October 2. Collected monies must always be under the direct supervision of school personnel, and at no time should it be left unattended.

Remember to track funds raised - funds MUST be collected and deposited daily.

STUDENTS CAN ONLY COUNT money under your supervision. Let them organize the money so the Office Manager can easily make the daily deposit. Funds must be turned in by the sponsor with the appropriate completed Teacher/Sponsor Deposit Slip.

Step 5 - Empower Students, Impact your Community, Have Fun and Celebrate

Each school is invited to attend the Common Cents Ceremonial Check Presentation to be held in Spring 2024 where students get a chance to meet representatives from their chosen nonprofit.

Properly Handling the Money

Counting and Turning in Money

Students can learn about money responsibility by doing the preliminary money counting. With your supervision let them complete the Itemized Receipt Form provided in this kit. Coach your students to organize the money to make the Office Manager's job easy.

As Campus Sponsor you will need to take money to campus financial clerk/activity fund/office manager daily. Please make note of each date and amount of each deposit. All checks should be made out to Dallas ISD with Common Cents in the memo line.

Instructions for Office Manager or Activity Fund Manager

- All monies must be DEPOSITED DAILY to book and receipted in campus (461) Common Cents Account "CO" with notes "Common Cents collections".
- ALL Common Cents funds (no matter the group handling) must be deposited into the 461-CO account for tracking purposes.
- Office Manager or Activity Fund Manager will need to provide the total deposited to Tonya Mayberry Davis (tmayberry@dallasisd.org) by December 15, 2023.*
- Based on this information, Common Cents will invoice the Dallas ISD for total amount collected. Partnership and Volunteer Services will work with Accounting to make sure monies are processed correctly to ensure monies are properly transferred to CFT for distribution to non-profits.

Social and Emotional Learning SEL Reflection Questions

As your campus participates in the Common Cents initiative, students and staff members have a valuable opportunity to develop social and emotional learning (SEL) skills such as empathy, self-awareness, reflection, and community building.

Here are suggested guiding questions for campus-wide / classroom reflection for elementary grade levels:

- How would you like to help our community become a better place? What does that look and feel like?
- What does philanthropy mean?
 - General definition: philanthropy is giving your time, personal strengths / skills, and / or goods / money to address a local, national, or global cause
 - Why is it important to help others?
 - When has someone helped you? What happened? How did you feel?
- What is empathy?
 - How does it feel when someone listens and understands your feelings?
 - Why is showing empathy for others important?
 - How do you show empathy to others?
- How did it feel when deciding how to devote your time, support, and donations with Common Cents?
- What other issues do you think that you could help with in your community?
- What are you grateful for [today, this week, this semester, etc.]?
- In addition to fundraising, what are other ways to serve your community?
- How can you continue being a leader in your community after the Common Cents initiative ends?

Social and Emotional Learning SEL Reflection Questions

As your campus participates in the Common Cents initiative, students and staff members have a valuable opportunity to develop social and emotional learning (SEL) skills such as empathy, self-awareness, reflection, and community building.

Here are suggested guiding questions for campus-wide / classroom reflection for secondary grade levels:

- How would you like to help our community/world become a better place? What does that look and feel like?
- Based on the non-profit organization and community cause that your campus has chosen for fundraising, how do you connect with that cause?
 - What do you already know about the cause? What questions do you still have?
- What are your core values? Think about 3-5 values that are most important to you and connect with your beliefs and aspirations.
 - If possible, share your core values with a partner. Do you have any values in common?
 - Are there any causes or organizations that connect with one or more of the values that are important to you?
- Everyone is a leader with unique skills and perspectives. How would you describe yourself as a leader? What leadership skills do you have?
- What does philanthropy mean?
 - General definition: philanthropy is giving your time, personal strengths / skills, and / or goods / money to address a local, national, or global cause
 - Why is it important to help others?
 - When has someone helped you? What happened? How did you feel?
 - Why is it important for leaders to give and/or help others?
- What does it mean to have empathy for others?
 - How does it feel when someone listens and understands your feelings?
 - Why does showing empathy for others matter?
- What are you grateful for [today, this week, this semester, etc.]?
- How does the Common Cents cause connect with your community?
 - What impact do you hope the fundraiser will have within your community?
- What other issues or challenges do you see in your community that you feel compelled to address?
 - Why is that issue (or multiple issues) important to you?
- In addition to fundraising, what are other ways to serve your community?
- How can you continue being a leader in your community after the Common Cents initiative wraps up?

Dear Parents of Student Leaders,
We wanted to share with you that our school has chosen to participate in the Dallas ISD Common Cents program and your child has been selected to be a student leader for our school.

School Common Cents Coordinator is _____

Common Cents is a student-driven educational program offered exclusively to Dallas ISD to teach philanthropy by enabling students to play an active role in raising money for their communities. In this program students are the decision makers. Student leaders meet to discuss existing community needs and research what nonprofit organizations could meet those needs. Student leaders also help plan a campus fundraiser to raise money for the chosen nonprofit. During the 2022-2023 school year 17 schools from across the district helped raise $26,500 for local charities.

As a student leader, your student will receive a t-shirt for their participation and be invited to a field trip in February to meet someone from their chosen organization and present them with a large ceremonial check.

You can support your student by asking questions and spreading the word with your friends, coworkers, and family.

Ask your child what needs they see in your community?

How could those needs be met?

What organizations did you learn about today?

Have you decided on a fundraiser?

The program will be from _____ to _____.

Thank you for your help and support.

Estimados padres de los líderes estudiantiles,

Queremos compartir con usted que nuestra escuela ha decidido participar en el programa Common Cents de Dallas ISD y que su hijo(a) ha sido seleccionado para ser un líder estudiantil para nuestra escuela.

El/la coordinador(a) escolar de Common Cents es _____

Common Cents es un programa educativo impulsado por los estudiantes que se ofrece exclusivamente al Dallas ISD para enseñar filantropía a los estudiantes y permitirles desempeñar un papel activo en la recaudación de dinero para sus comunidades. Los estudiantes son los que toman las decisiones en este programa. Los líderes estudiantiles se reúnen para hablar sobre las necesidades presentes en la comunidad e investigar cuales organizaciones sin fines de lucro podrían satisfacer esas necesidades. Los líderes estudiantiles también ayudan a planificar un evento de recaudación de fondos en la escuela para recaudar dinero para la organización sin fines de lucro que han elegido. Durante el año escolar del 2022-2023, 17 escuelas de todo el distrito ayudaron a recaudar $26,500 para organizaciones benéficas locales.

Como líder estudiantil, su estudiante recibirá una camiseta por su participación, y será invitado a una excursión en febrero para conocer a alguien de la organización elegida y entregarle un gran cheque ceremonial.

Puede apoyar a su estudiante al hacer preguntas y difundiendo el mensaje entre sus propios amigos, compañeros de trabajo y familiares.

Pregúntele a su hijo(a), ¿qué necesidades ven en su comunidad?

¿Cómo se podrían satisfacer esas necesidades?

¿Qué organizaciones han conocido hoy?

¿Han elegido una recaudación de fondos?

El programa se llevará a cabo desde el _____ hasta el _____.

Gracias por su ayuda y su apoyo.

Dear Parents of _____ (school name) _____.

We wanted to share with you that our school has chosen to participate in the Dallas ISD Common Cents program.

Common Cents is a learning experience designed to teach students how to be a philanthropist (a person who helps others). Students will research and investigate the needs of their community, locate nonprofit organizations that can meet those needs, organize a fundraiser, and experience the powerful impact of giving back. All activities are led by district staff.

In this program students are the decision makers. The student leaders at our school have chosen _____ philanthropy name _____ and 100% of what we raise will be donated to this organization. Our student leaders are preparing now for creative ways to raise money for _____ philanthropy name _____.

Our fundraising will be from _____ to _____.

During the 2022-2023 school year 17 schools raised $26,500 for charity. Since the program began, students have raised and donated over $950,000. This is amazing!

Your student can bring money in any amount. A quarter or dime is not too little! Ask family members/friends/neighbors for donations and participate in our campus fundraiser. Every little bit helps. Most of all, we all want to provide them with an opportunity to be generous.

Thank you for your help and support.

Estimados padres de _____ (nombre de la escuela) _____.

Queremos compartir con usted que nuestra escuela ha decidido participar en el programa Common Cents de Dallas ISD.

Common Cents es una experiencia educativa diseñada para enseñarles a los estudiantes a ser un filántropo (alguien que ayuda a los demás). Los estudiantes averiguarán e investigarán las necesidades de su comunidad, ubicarán organizaciones sin fines de lucro que pueden satisfacer esas necesidades, organizarán un evento de recaudación de fondos y conocerán el poderoso impacto de devolver algo a la sociedad. Todas las actividades son dirigidas por personal del distrito.

En este programa, los estudiantes son los que toman las decisiones. Los líderes estudiantiles de nuestra escuela son los que deciden.

_____ Nombre de la filantropía _____ y 100% de lo que recaudaremos será donado a esta organización. Nuestros líderes estudiantiles están actualmente preparando maneras creativas de recaudar dinero para _____ Nombre de la filantropía _____.

Nuestra recaudación se llevará a cabo desde el _____ hasta el _____.

Durante el año escolar del 2022-2023, 17 escuelas de todo el distrito recaudaron $26,500 para organizaciones benéficas locales. Desde que se estableció el programa, los estudiantes han recaudado y donado mas de $950,000. ¡Eso es increíble!

Su estudiante puede traer dinero sin importar la cantidad. ¡Una moneda de 10 o 25 centavos no es poco! Participe en la recaudación de fondos de nuestra escuela y pídale a sus familiares/amigos/vecinos que contribuyan con sus donaciones. Cada contribución cuenta. Más que nada, queremos darles la oportunidad a todos de ser generosos.

Gracias por su ayuda y su apoyo.
